Social Safety Tip

Have you seen posts from friends with questions like:

- What was your first car?
- Who was your favorite teacher?
- Who was your best friend in high school?

While these seem like innocent questions, they are common challenge questions used when people forget passwords for Online Banking.

Criminals are harvesting this information to gain access to consumer accounts.

Before you join in, be sure that you're not social sharing a way into your accounts.

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers.

Write or telephone us at Washington Federal (name, location and telephone number appears on the front of this statement) as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- 1. Please tell us your name and account number.
- 2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
- 3. Please tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your inquiry and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
