Social Safety Tip

Have you seen posts from friends
with questions like:

- What was your first car?
- Who was your favorite teacher?
- Who was your best friend in high school?

While these seem like innocent questions, they are common challenge questions used when people forget passwords for Online Banking.

Criminals are harvesting this information to gain access to consumer accounts.

Before you join in, be sure that you're not social sharing a way into your accounts.
